THE PROOF

HOW WE’VE HELPED OTHERS

Wyndham Destinations
Wyndham Destinations reduced training by 60 mins per learner, saving the company 23,750 training hours in total through customized compliance training.

Procter & Gamble
100% of P&G employees who took the QPHA Simulation agreed the program builds capacity in Quality Assurance.

ELFA
The Equipment Leasing and Finance Association saw 80% training ROI within the first two months of launching their eLearning assessment course.

Vermont DMV
Vermont DMV increased the pass rate for written driver exams from 55% to 75% with the Drive Vermont online tutorial.
At Designing Digitally, we aim to understand your business objectives, determine your existing learning barriers and opportunities, and then develop innovative training experiences that will produce the desired improvements and changes. We work to gain a deep knowledge of your initiatives, identify the skills needed to prepare next-level employees, and set plans of action to maintain and grow your organization.

CONTENT READINESS CHECKLIST

DO YOU HAVE EVERYTHING YOU NEED?

We help you determine the feasibility of your project by identifying the following factors before you begin your learning journey.

- Need: What is the driving motive for this effort? Problem, need or opportunity?
- Desire: What goals do you want to achieve from this training effort?
- Ability: Do you have the authority to authorize this training effort?
- Capacity: Do you have an allocated budget for this training effort?
- Objectives: Do you know what criteria this training effort must include?
- Opportunity: Is now the right time to begin this training effort?
What is the most effective way to train your workforce? Contact us to determine the best way to educate, engage, and entertain your learners through the use of custom online training courses. With our consultative approach, our team will work with your organization to understand your content then create a custom learning plan with targeted outcomes to ensure an engaging training experience. Our team will develop your entire curriculum of custom courses to fill all of your organization’s training needs.
